Wedding Dress

Synopsis

No other garment is lavished with as much thought and attention as the dress a bride wears on her wedding day. This sentimental treasury of wedding gowns throughout history is a joyous source of inspiration, with sumptuous, full-color photographs that reveal every breathtaking detail. From the traditional to the sleekly contemporary, from elegant to girlishly innocent, from homespun to royally splendid, each wedding dress in these pages is simply unforgettable. It's the perfect gift for an engagement or bridal shower!

Customer Reviews

The book has various photos of gowns dating back in history and until now, some photos are more wedding snapshots. It has a little bit of history behind the wedding dress and what i found the most exciting was that on every second page was quotations about celebrating love and marriage. I found the quotations more interesting than the photos themselves.

I rate the book as being very good, but it could be better. It had nice style, but not quite what I was looking for.
