Customer Reviews

Hi, I've read at least 100 sales books and 3000 or 4000 marketing books. I understand a number of reviews on this book weren't favorable. I think I can explain why. And tell you why I read the book 4x times and feel you should also. 1. Here's why this book is exceptional: Rashaun earns 7 figures in commissions annually. 2. He does this by using about 10 prospecting methods every single day. 3. He distributes 50,000 reply cards a month, 5000 flyers a day, and more. He passes out literature daily. Now, when I sold insurance no one ever gave me ANY of these ideas. They told me call through my book of business and that there were some direct mail letters in a drawer I could look at. 4. He breaks down the number of leads each method generates. Now there's one thing he doesn't do: This book doesn't go into in-depth step-by-step implementation details. For example, there's no sample flyer or even a picture of the flyer he distributes. There is a very rough mockup of his business reply mailer he distributes. That is the reason I think some criticized the book. Others said they didn't learn anything. I don't know man. The dude does 7 figures in COMMISSIONS annually. He DOMINATES the sale of family life insurance in NY. He is #1 with multiple vendors in sales. I've read a lot of books on insurance sales and never saw one this detailed about prospecting. Most books give methods to get referrals or a few things that don't work. This guy is what he says he is. He says he's a prospecting monster. After you read the book, I can't fathom that you aren't motivated to crank up some prospecting.
