New England's Colonial Inns & Taverns: Centuries Of Yankee Fare And Hospitality

Synopsis

The six-state region that is New England is home to some of Americaâ ™s oldest inns and tavernsâ "â "among the most historic and storied public houses in the country. It is amazing to think that the first whispers of the American Revolution were discussed within their walls. Today, travelers have an opportunity to experience American hospitality as it existed during colonial times. There is nothing more tried and true than a restaurant or an inn that has been around for several hundred years. Itâ ™s easy to feel as if you have gone back in time when you step across a threshold. Thereâ ™s a sense of history, a colonial spirit, and a very definite sense of place. All of these colonial inns and taverns help to tell the regionâ ™s remarkable story, keeping New Englandâ ™s heritage, values, and traditions alive.
