Synopsis

The only print version of the government's database designed to replace the 60+ year old "Dictionary of Occupational Titles" as "the" standard for industrial classification. Compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, it contains the most accurate and up-to-date information on virtually every occupation in the workplace. --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

Customer Reviews

Far superior to old DOT. This ONE book gives info concisely yet on far more Job Titles and has cross references to legacy Dept. of Labor publications. I eagerly jumped on the internet to follow up some leads. When JIST gets all the info up on their website it will be a fantastic resource. I hope they make full book available to bonifide buyers online - cut & paste beats typing! The 4 star rating was based by overly broad Job Titles seeming to inflate the SVP [Specific Vocational Preparation] and GED [General Educational Developement] requirements. This could skew the perception that the goal is less achievable and cost(s) exorbitant. We specifically researched 31514 Vocational & Education Counselor DOT 187.167-198 Veterans Contact Representative. This gave SVP 7 [>2 years and Good.
